All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. The Church has always taught to pray for those who have gone into eternity, that they may be loosed from sins. Purgatory is not eternal, but a temporary place for the expiation of personal sins.

By divine mercy, those in purgatory have escaped the sentence of Hell, and are in the process of reconciling God's justice and goodness toward the purification of their souls and eventual entrance into heaven with God forever. The Church has always encouraged fervent prayer for those suffering in purgatory because our prayers help alleviate their suffering.

Rosary for Mary

Would you like to spiritually leave a rosary for a month in Mary's praying hands?

The parish is offering the opportunity for you to have your rosary placed in the hands of Mary's statue in church, symbolically asking Mary herself to hold your rosary while she prays to her son for your intentions. Perhaps, if you have a rosary that you intend to give as a gift, this would make it a special present.

Those wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity are asked to contact the office.

Live the Rosary

There are two great laws in the economy of our spiritual salvation. Our spiritual salvation must be centered in Christ and, secondly, our spirituality develops and grows under the influence of Mary. She is the best and quickest means of coming to Jesus and, through him, to the Blessed Trinity. Living the Rosary is an excellent way of loving and honoring Mary.

Repeating, prayerfully, the Hail Mary and meditating on the mysteries of Christ puts the soul in a divine atmosphere. Through the Rosary the soul learns how to habitually live in the presence of the Blessed Trinity.

Fr. Marie M. Philipon, French Dominican

Little Johnny was in church with his mother one Sunday, when he began to feel ill.

"Mommy," he asked, "can we leave now?"

"No," his mother replied. "Why?"

"I think I have to throw up!"

"Then go out the front door and around to the back of the church and throw up behind a bush," she said.

Little Johnny left but he returned just a few seconds later.

"Did you throw up?" Mom asked.

"Yes," said Little Johnny.

"How could you get back so quickly?"

"I didn't have to go out of the church, Mommy. They have a box next to the front door that says, 'For the Sick.'"

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Court Ave Maria #399, will not be holding their regular monthly meeting November 4th due to it being Election Day.

The meeting is rescheduled to Tuesday, November 11th, 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM in the Parish Center, Large Room. All are welcome to attend!

Learning is in full swing at LHCS. The students have been working hard and having fun along the way.

This year, they are guided by the scripture verse:

"Be devoted to one another in Love; Honor one another above yourselves." — Romans 12:10

Some highlights of the first marking period include:

- Middle schoolers are learning to knit. From casting on to stitching rows, they're building patience, focus, and creativity—one loop at a time.
- Each week, first graders meet with their seventh grade book buddies to build a love of reading while strengthening literacy skills. This partnership gives students the chance to practice social skills, reading, listening, and sharing stories together.
- Elementary and middle school students had an amazing time at the Aerium Fall Summit and 45th Annual PA Aviation Conference in Johnstown, PA! They explored the exciting world of aviation through hands-on activities, met real pilots and industry experts, and even got to go on discovery flights.
- First and second graders had a blast exploring the wonders of agriculture in the Mobile Ag Ed Science Lab. First grade learned how water moves through plants, while second grade discovered all about popcorn - from kernel to snack!

Stewardship REFLECTION

On this sacred day, the Church invites us to remember and pray for all the faithful departed – those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. It is a day of profound connection, when the veil between heaven and earth feels especially thin. Stewardship is rooted in gratitude, and today we give thanks for the lives of those who shaped our faith, nurtured our families, and built our communities. Their legacy is a gift we have received, and we are called to be faithful stewards of that gift by living lives of holiness, generosity and love.

As we celebrate this day, we are reminded that stewardship is not only about what we do with our time, talent and treasure – it is about how we care for the memory and spiritual well-being of others. Our prayers for the dead are acts of mercy, expressions of hope, and signs of our belief in the communion of saints. Let us honor the faithful departed by continuing their good works, supporting our parish communities, and living as witnesses to the Resurrection.

a person's greatest emotional need is to feel appreciated.
