This year's Summer Solstice occurs on Sunday, June 21, 2026, at 8:24 A.M. On this day, the sun reaches its most northerly point in the Northern Hemisphere with the accompanying longest day of the year, a little over 12 hours of daylight. Soon, the sun tilts the other direction, leading to less daylight and, ultimately, the Winter Solstice and shortest day of the year on December 21, 2026.

Midsummer Christmas Day Solemnity of the Nativity of John the Baptist June 24, 2026

Why does the Church celebrate the birthday of John the Baptist each June 24th? Because John is the last of all the prophets and both his message and life proclaim the coming of Jesus into the world. John's mission and purpose in his life was to prepare the way of the Lord and to set the stage for the greatness of the Son of the Most High. Jesus being inseparable from John, it is by no means astonishing that the earth's gladness at John's birth should partake of something of that gladness of the coming of our Redeemer. The Nativity of St. John the Baptist is celebrated with so much pomp because it seems to enfold within itself the Nativity of Christ, our Redeemer, at Christmas. Hence, as it were, the celebration of the Birth of John the Baptist may be referred to as a "Midsummer Christmas Day."

A Reminder from the Cemetery Committee

As of July 1st, the price of a cemetery plot at both St. Mary's and St. Agnes cemeteries is going up from $400 to $600 per plot.

The price increase is due to the increase in the cemetery maintenances.

THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary is celebrated on the Saturday after the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), this year it was June 13th. The Immaculate Heart of Mary signifies the great purity and love of the heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary for God. Mary said "Yes" to God at the Incarnation, cooperated with her son Jesus in His redemptive mission, manifested docility to the Holy Spirit, and remained free of the stain of personal sin throughout her life. Mary experienced both joys and sorrows in her earthly life, yet remained faithful, as we, too, are called to do.

Stewardship REFLECTION

Today's readings call us to tackle the challenging issues of fear and trust – two concepts on opposite sides of the same coin. They must be confronted and dealt with by all of us who wish to live the stewardship way of life.

In our first reading, from Jeremiah, the prophet expresses sentiments we have all felt at some point in our lives, when he says, "I hear the whispering of many: 'Terror on every side!'" Perhaps this 'whispering' comes from the culture that insists we must think of ourselves, our own interests, our financial comfort first – only when we are certain that our own needs are met can we think of serving God and sharing with others. Perhaps when we consider stepping out of our comfort zones, the fear-inducing whispers come from within us – "you're too weak, too selfish, too broken to really live as Christ's disciple." Yet, just when Jeremiah is nearly overcome with fear, he remembers the truth, and it is just as true for us today. "The Lord is with me, like a mighty champion." Of course!

Let's stop wasting any more time with fear. Instead, let's put all our energy, all our time, our talents and our treasure into trusting this great God, and using all that we are and all that He has given us to bring Him glory.

Sanctuary Candles

The sanctuary candle for the second two weeks of June at St. Agnes Church is burning in memory of Ken Sohmer by Alison Sohmer.

The sanctuary candle for the second two weeks of June at Immaculate Conception Church is burning in memory of Michael Hutsky by his brother and sisters.

Music Ministry

We celebrate and thank the choir members of both churches who have ended their choir season for the summer and will resume again in the fall. We appreciate their commitment and gift of song. Special thanks to our organists who keep us in tune and our cantors and instrumentalists who add beauty to our liturgies.

If you are interested in being part of the music ministry, tune up your voice and call Cecilia (SA) at 570-660-3269 or Mary Lou (IC) at 570-660-2028.
